PTA Leadership Training
Secretary

Hosted by Louisiana PTA
LouisianaPTA.org/secretary
secretary@LouisianaPTA.org

Objectives today:

• Become aware of LAPTA Officer and Unit requirements
• Identify the basic roles and responsibilities of a PTA secretary
• Become familiar with basic terms used in running a PTA
• Recognize what belongs in minutes
• Understand the importance of the minute and record retention
• Become aware of the LAPTA Communications and Social Media Guidance memo

Why are we here? Why do you PTA?
To make every child’s potential a reality by engaging and empowering families and communities to advocate for all children.

Where to start? With Sign-Ups & Downloads

• Visit LouisianaPTA.org/secretary
• Download the LAPTA Toolkit: Secretary Sec 4. The Toolkit contains information on your job
• Create an account at PTA.org and create an account. There is lots of information plus e-Learning and “Thrive” educational videos.
• Register at LouisianaPTA.org/submit-officer-data-1. This is required and will allow you to receive LAPTA emails and e-newsletters.
• All officers need to be PTA members of their Local PTA Units -- this also makes you a LAPTA and National PTA member.
Do you have the “Write” Stuff?

• You are not “just a secretary”.
• Your duties as the secretary are second only to that of the president.
• You are essential to the smooth operation of your PTA.
• Your positive attitude and enthusiasm are contagious.
• You are prompt, efficient and dependable.

Basic Roles and Responsibilities of the Secretary

• You are a member of the Executive Committee and Board of Directors.
• Your basic duties are defined in your unit bylaws: Article VII, Section 4.
• Your additional duties may be designated in your unit standing rules.
• You manage and keep the records of PTA business.
• You prepare for the meetings by providing notifications and agendas.
• Your record the activity occurring during meetings.
• You provide post-meeting follow through with your minutes.
• You maintain all records in compliance with the PTA Records Retention policy outlined in the LAPTA Secretary Toolkit.
• You should review the Toolkit for a more complete description of your responsibilities.

Terms to know and understand

• Bylaws: The governing rules of our association. LAPTA has a Local Unit bylaws template on the state website that each unit must use (https://louisianapta.org/bylaws).
  • Instructions and submission information posted there
  • Bylaws cover a 3-year period and must be renewed before expiration
  • List the name and purpose of the association
  • Who may be member
  • Officers and their duties
  • Types of meeting and quorum
  • Nominations, elections and vacancies
  • Committees, standing and special
  • Parliamentary authority
  • Amendments to bylaws

Terms to know and understand, cont’d:

• Quorum: The minimum number of members necessary for a PTA to conduct business. Your quorum numbers are found in your bylaws.
• Board of Directors: The main governing body of your PTA. It consists of the elected officers (Executive Committee) and members as defined by your bylaws.
• Motions: Statements that describe a proposed action or decision.
Minutes are:

- The official record of all meetings. They are kept forever and become the history of your PTA.
- They protect the members of the PTA. Every member has the responsibility to read the minutes.
- A record of what is done, not what is said.
- If it is not in the minutes, it did not happen.
- Personal opinions and discussions are not recorded.
- Written efficiently – complete, concise and efficiently.
- Written in ink in a bound journal with consecutively numbered pages. The secretary signs the minutes at the close of the meeting.
- Meetings may be recorded by one person and all members must be aware of the recording. Recordings assist the secretary in preparing accurate minutes. Recordings are destroyed after minutes have been documented.

Contents of Minutes

- Heading: Kind of meeting (General Membership, Board of Directors, Special); PTA name; date; location
- Call to Order: by (name) at (time)
- Opening: The PTA mission and Why We PTA is how we open every meeting. In the minutes note that it was read and by whom.
- Attendance: Names of members present (usually in Board or Committee meetings with 20 or fewer members) may be included or attach a sign-in sheet; quorum was or was not established. Also add any courtesy seats here (non voting members allowed by the President to attend)
- Minutes: Draft minutes from (date) meeting were read (or distributed or emailed) and approved as read (or approved as corrected) or the reading of the minutes was waived and approved as distributed.

Contents of Minutes, cont’d:

- Treasurer’s Report: State the bank name and account balance(s); attach the reconciliation report, budget report, reviewed and signed bank statement, and other details; a motion is not required to file the reports
- President’s Report: details
- Principal’s Report: details
- Committee Reports: List the PTA committees and their details
- Unfinished Business: details
- New Business: details
- Announcements: details
- Adjournment: The meeting adjourned at am/pm.
- Secretary shall sign their full name and date the minutes in both the journal and the final approved minutes.

Motions are:

- Statements that describe a proposed action or decision.
- The process of making motions ensures that all decisions are fairly discussed and voted on.
- It is necessary to record motions verbatim, as well as the names of the individuals who made them.
- This optional Motion Form can be used to assist in recording motions properly.
- Record the name of the person who made the motion, whether there was a second, the date, the exact verbiage of the motion, verbal or ballot vote, and whether the motion passed or failed.
- When there are multiple motions in a meeting, keep the motions numbered and in order.
- If a motion is withdrawn, it is as though it never happened.
- Only record the final version of a motion.
Draft Your Minutes

- Minutes shall be typed within five days of its meeting, which are called the “draft minutes.”
- To begin have the agenda, bound journal, Secretary's binder, any reports or documents distributed at the meeting, verbatim copies of motions, and Bylaws at hand.
- Use the same template for all minutes which can be in a narrative or outline form.
- Number the pages consecutively.
- Assemble all attachments for inclusion with the final copy.
- Minutes are written in the third person.
- It is good practice to present the President with a draft to help find misinterpretations or sensitive material that should not be printed.

Approved Minutes

- At the next meeting of that body and after the call to order, opening, and establishment of a quorum, the Secretary immediately stands and reads the distributed draft minutes.
- By a majority vote without debate, the reading of the minutes may be waived and not read. The minutes can also be read later in the meeting.
- Upon completion, the Secretary asks, “Are there any corrections?” Corrections are made in red ink by drawing a line through the information with the correction above or written in the margin.
- The minutes are either “approved as read” or are “approved as corrected,” with the date of approval recorded, and the Secretary's signature on the minutes.
- The Secretary closes by saying, “The minutes are approved as read” or “The minutes are approved as corrected.”
- A motion is not needed to approve the minutes. Once approved, the minutes become the official, recorded minutes.

Correcting the Minutes

- Corrections are suggested without motion or vote.
- Be grateful for corrections to the minutes! At least someone was listening closely enough to detect an error, and those corrections enable you to keep a more accurate record for the PTA.
- Minutes may be corrected whenever the error is noticed, regardless of the time that has elapsed.
- To correct minutes after they have been approved requires a 2/3 vote.
- Corrections are made in red ink by drawing a line through the information with the correction above or written in the margin and initialed by the Secretary.
